SHORT TERM CATARACT SURGERY TRAINING PROGRAM

To help young ophthalmologists learn better techniques in cataract surgery, Trilochan Netralaya offers short term training modules in Manual Small Incision Cataract Surgery (MSICS) as well as Phacoemulsification.

FOR INDIAN TRAINEES

Eligibility –

This is offered to all doctors with a valid MS/ DOMS/ DNB degree certificate and registered under MCI or any state medical Council.

Training Period –

Training usually starts from 1st of each month and continues for a month. The hospital accommodates two candidates for SICS training and two candidates for Phaco training in a month.

Surgery is imparted through Alcon Infiniti Phaco machine. Surgical sessions will be limited to 4 days in a week. On other days, trainees will have to attend lectures, surgical video analysis etc. Both training happens under direct supervision of senior consultants on one to one basis. Trainees will get a premium Zeiss training microscope for their hands on session. All surgical cases are video recorded for analysis purposes and discussed for possible improvement.

Number of surgical cases will be 35 per month in both SICS as well as Phaco but this again depends on the learning curve. This may be more if learning is fast and with limited surgical complications.

Accommodation –

The hospital offers bachelor accommodation in its guest house which is near the hospital. This allows single occupancy AC rooms for trainees at a fee of INR 15,000/- per month.

Food –

The hospital provides breakfast and vegetarian meals during lunch and dinner. The approximate cost of the food is INR 7000/- per month. However, a number of hotels are available near the guest house for non veg food if the trainee intends to have.

Course fee -

For SICS – INR 50,000/- per month.

For Phaco – INR 100,000/- per month.

The course fee will be collected through a demand draft, drawn in favor of "Vision India Foundation" payable at Sambalpur or through NEFT bank transfer.

Documents required –

Trainees have to submit filled in application form & photocopy of following documents -

Master's degree certificate
Medical registration certificate
Aadhaar card & PAN Card.

Filled up application form complete in all respect must be sent through email beforehand so as to get a confirmed slot. The soft copy of the application form is available on request.
